

Conditions to Watch Out For After Taking Prednisone

Consult your child's doctor soon if your child develops the following conditions after Prednisone administration.

Severe stomach pain

Infections, especially chickenpox or shingles

Weakness or dizziness

Problems with vision

Fever over 100°F (when measured under the arm)

Recurrent vomiting

Increased frequency of urination

References

- 1 Prednisone and Prednisolone; Nationwide Children's Hospital
- 2 Prednisone; MSKCC