

Pick-Up Lines To Woo Your Gamer Crush

Is your name Candy Crush?
Because I'm addicted to you.

Plumbers are red; Hedgehogs are blue; press 'start' to join, and be my player two.

I have got one heart left, and you know, it's beeping for you.

I become Gordon Freeman... completely speechless when I look at you.

Are you wearing Pegasus Boots? Cause you are running through my mind throughout the day.

If I lived in Minecraft, I would have built you a mansion out of nether quartz.

I need my lens of truth because you seem like a dream!

If my pickpocket skill were better, I'd steal your heart.
