

MISCONCEPTIONS ABOUT THE OLDEST CHILD

They are stubborn and bossy.

They are less mischievous than their younger siblings.

They are very possessive about their belongings and don't like sharing.

They believe in taking risks and are more successful than their siblings.

They are more responsible and hardworking than their siblings.

They are less social and are not more expressive of their feelings.

They are more intelligent than their younger siblings.

They are solely responsible for the responsibilities at home.