

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN

HELICOPTER Parenting

FREE-RANGE Parenting

Hinders the natural development of the child

Spurs a sense of independence in the child

Deprives the child of first hand experience

Instills confidence and self-esteem

Makes them follow the same path

Offers a chance to make a new path

Makes the parent panic and over-react in difficult situations

Keeps the parent calm and composed during tough situations

Examples of Helicopter Parenting

Picks clothes for the children

Makes them have selected food items from the buffet

Tells them what to write in the school essay

Examples of Free-Range Parenting

Makes them explore their own style

Gives them a chance to do what they want

Allows them to put across their emotions
