

Tips To Clean And Maintain

Chicco Strollers

Wipe the plastic components with a soft damp cloth.

Adhere to the care label instructions for cleaning the fabric components.

Dry the metal components when exposed to water to prevent rust.

Keep the movable parts dust-free to avoid friction when operating the stroller.

Lubricate the moving parts only when it is required and not otherwise.

Use a silicon-based lubricant to smoothen the motion.