

Tips To Keep Your Guy Interested In Your Fun And Flirty Texts

Start with a compliment about something they want people to notice.

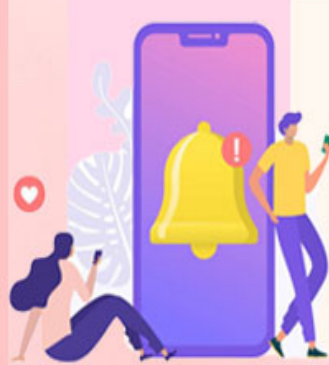

Although it's not an English class, do check your grammar.

Try to use appropriate emojis instead of sending simple texts.

Send flirty or funny texts before and after a date to keep them excited and interested.

Don't appear desperate if they don't respond well to your jokes or flirty texts.

Try to tone down your wit and avoid sarcasm.

Keep the texts light-hearted and nothing too deep or thought-provoking, as it may ruin the romantic flow.
