

Ways To Prevent The Spread Of Impetigo In Children

Keep the sores covered with bandages or clothes.

Ask the child to avoid touching or scratching sores.

Wash hands thoroughly with soap and water after touching the sores.

Avoid sharing personal items and utensils with other children.

Avoid contact with siblings or daycare visits until cured.

Avoid contact with newborns and pregnant women.