

Sigma Males

Sigma males are highly independent and don't pay heed to social interpretations. They are not stereotypical and are free-willed.

Traits Of Sigma Males

Lone wolves; however, can adjust with people they like.

Possess rusty social skills and don't care about others.

Self-sufficient, original, and fearless.

Self-aware, responsible, and critical thinkers.

Good listeners, team leaders, and easy-going.

Non-judgemental and show their true face.
