

Pros And Cons Of A Gemini-Libra Couple

PROS

Gemini loves Libra's energy and has no trouble keeping up, even when Libra is off on romantic or other pursuits.

They both have wide-ranging interests and connect at an intellectual level.

They work together, accept each other's viewpoints, and enjoy working on new ideas.

CONS

Both of them feel deeply, which can, at times, result in emotional outbursts.

Though Libra and Gemini are loquacious and expressive, they may not communicate much about their inner desires and emotions.

Gemini can sometimes be fickle-minded and restless, while Libra is clear about what they want and always strives for balance and harmony in love, life, and career.
