

When To Seek Medical Help For A Baby's Choking

Aspiration signs

Cessation of breathing while feeding

Red face and watery eyes

A mild fever after feeding

Frequent lung infections

Choking or coughing while feeding

Alarming Signs Of Choking

Baby not making sounds or crying

High-pitched sounds while inhaling

Baby's skin turning blue

Baby struggling to breathe

Baby losing consciousness

References

1. Aspiration in Babies and Children; Cedars Sinai
2. Choking first aid - infant under 1 year - series—Part 1; MedLine Plus