

Children-Friendly Movies On

Baseball

Everyone's Hero (suitable for all ages) shows how a young boy returns the legendary sportsman Babe Ruth's bat to save the 1932 World Series.

Air Bud – Seventh Inning Fetch (suitable for all ages) shows how the beloved golden retriever saves the town baseball team while searching for his kidnapped puppies.

42 (suitable for children 13 and older with parental guidance) is the biopic of Jackie Robinson, the first African-American to partake in Major League Baseball.

The Sandlot (suitable for ages 10 and older with parental guidance) is about a Little League team that faces the typical teenage problem with a "monster" challenge twist.

The Life And Times Of Hank Greenberg (suitable for ages 13 and older with parental guidance) is a documentary on the life of the legendary baseball player.

