

Advantages Of Using LED Lights

LED lights don't heat up or emit UV rays when in use.

LED lights can sustain being switched on and off frequently.

Most LED lights are made using recyclable materials.

The lights are small and flexible enough to be used in areas with space constraints.

LED lights can even work on a low power supply.

LED lights instantly brighten up to their total capacity.

Reference:
1. LED Lighting; Energy GOV