

Shower Love On — Your Son — On His Birthday

We've always been proud of you. Now more than ever, our hearts are bursting with pride, because you've grown into a remarkable person – so full of love, caring, and joy.

Happy birthday, dear, dear boy!

I am your biggest fan, your protector; I will always defend you, I will get frustrated; I will be proud of you; I will be your confidant and love you unconditionally, because forever and always I am your mom.

Happy birthday, son!

Dear son, wherever you are in life, always remember that

I will be proud of you forever.

You always go the distance & never give up. That's one of the many reasons we're so proud you're our son.

Happy birthday dear boy!

When you were little, I used to be your hero, but now you've become mine. I can't believe how much you've grown in the last few years. You've become an intelligent, strong, and brave young boy

I am proud of.
