

BOARD GAMES AROUND THE WORLD

CATAN

Catan is a board game from Germany where players need to build and grow their estate in order to win.

GO

Go is an abstract strategy board game from China where two players compete to take over each other's pieces.

LUDO

Although patented in England in 1896, Ludo is a popular board game with its origin in India and derived from the ancient game of Pachisi.

SENET

After the game of life comes the "game of afterlife," i.e., Senet. It is believed to be one of the earliest board games from Egypt.

LOTERÍA

Originally from Italy but came to be widely played in Mexico, Lotería is similar to bingo with pictures instead of numbers.

RISK

Originated in France, the Risk was invented by Albert Lamorisse, a French film director; the players need to conquer the world by taking over territories.