

HANDY GUIDE

For Buying A

Wallet Tracker

Look for compact, lightweight designs that fit nicely into wallets.

Prefer purchasing a Bluetooth-enabled digital wallet tracker.

Choose a tracker with a broad signal range, strong enough to pass through doors, walls, and cushions.

Pick a tracker that can function for an extended period without charging.

Opt for a tracker that gives alert sounds.

Set a budget before looking for a tracker.

Consider any recurring expenses, such as replacement batteries.

If it fits your budget, consider looking for extra features such as a camera and GPS.
