

INTERESTING ACTIVITIES TEENS CAN DO WHILE CAMPING

GROUP STORYTELLING AND SHARING EXPERIENCES

The children are required to share stories where it starts with a line inspired by their surroundings. Eventually, the subsequent players keep adding to the story with the help of the last few words.

MURDER IN THE DARK

A fake murder is planned where one of the players is a victim. The clues are given, with the help of which a team of "detectives" has to find the murderer.

SINGING A SONG

The campers are supposed to sing a song each. The last letter of the song is what the next player has to sing a song with. The one who fails to think of a song in ten seconds loses the game.

NOAH'S ARK

In this activity, all the members are asked to sit in a circle and take turns to utter the names of animals, which could be found in Noah's Ark, in alphabetical order.

CAMPING

