

Absent Father And Mother Quotes

Absent father quotes

"There's nothing worse than a man who is everything to everyone, except being a father to his daughter/son."

"Just because your father's present doesn't mean he isn't absent."

"I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection."

Absent mother quotes

"You were my home, Mother. I had no home but you."

"There is nothing harder than needing your mother and not being able to feel her hug."

"The mother holds the child's bits together. She is his glue, his container. When the mother is really there, lovingly holding the child, it gives the child something to hold on to."

