

EFFECTIVE WAYS TO PREVENT SCARS IN CHILDREN

Wash and clean small scrapes and cuts properly to prevent infection and scarring.

Bandage the wound once it is cleaned properly.

Seek medical attention for deeper cuts or if bleeding does not stop.

Encourage your child to wear protective gear when engaging in activities that may cause injury.

Avoid exposing scars to harsh sunlight.

Do not itch or poke existing scars to avoid aggravation.

Use scar prevention products recommended by a healthcare provider.