

Dos And Don'ts Of Dropping Apology Letters

DOS

Give the letter when he's relaxed and alone.

Place the letter on a shelf or table where it is easily visible.

Put the letter in a shiny and romantic-themed envelope.

Address the letter to him using a nickname only you use for him.

Give it a sensual touch by spraying his favorite perfume of yours on the envelope.

DON'TS

Force him to take the letter when he is with his family or friends.

Barge into his workplace and insist on giving the letter.

Glue the letter onto his freshly ironed suit or his recently bought laptop.

Spam him with multiple letters because he refused to read the first one.

Send the letter via his friend or relative with an explicit image of you attached to the envelope.
