

Types Of

Minute-to-Win-It Game

1. Individual game

- The task is assigned to an individual player.
- Let them complete it within just a minute!

2. Group game

- The number of players required is two or more from two or more groups.
- The task is assigned to all the group members, competing against each other.
- Check after one minute for the group with more winnings.

3. Team game

- The number of players required is one player from each team with several teams.
- The task is assigned to a single player from each team, competing against each other.
- After a minute, check the players with more winnings or who finished first.

