

Games To Play At A Bridal Shower

He said, she said

Ask the bride and groom some questions, and use their answers to make an answer key. Pass the game cards with the questions among the guests and make them answer for the couple. The person with the most points wins.

What's on your phone?

Print out the names or pictures of different apps on cards. Hand a card and a pen to each guest. The guests have to mark the apps they have on their phones. Each app present gives them a point. The guests with the most points win.

Friendly feud

Design 20-25 PowerPoint slides with a question and multiple answers. Keep the answers from the players. When the players answer a question, click on the corresponding slide on the screen to reveal the answer.

How well do you know the bride?

Print out several questions about the bride on the game card. Ask them all to the guests. The one who gets the correct answers is the winner.
