

8 Exciting Facts — About The — 8-Legged Creature

The average life expectancy of scorpions is 3–8 years

The length of an adult scorpion is 2.5 to 8 inches

There are about 2000 different species of scorpions in the world

Scorpions hunt primarily in the nights

Only around 30 scorpion species have venom that could kill a human

Baby scorpions molt about six times before becoming an adult

They hibernate in the winter due to their preference for warmer weather

Scorpions lack bones inside their body

Mom Junction

Source: https://www.momjunction.com/articles/scorpion-facts-for-kids_00665929/