

Surgeries Used for

Testicular Pain Reduction

Based On The Cause

Hernia repair

Fix the hernia, including the spermatic cord

Testicular detorsion surgery

Untwist the spermatic cord and restore the blood supply

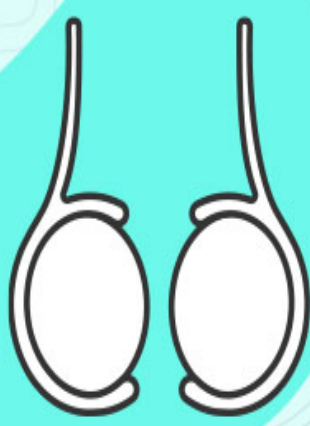

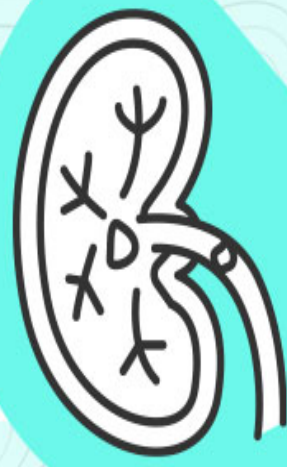

Epididymectomy

Remove epididymis to cure chronic pain

Shockwave lithotripsy

Kidney stone removal using laser therapy

Orchiectomy

Last resort procedure involving removal of testes

Reference

1. Testicular pain; Cleveland Clinic