

A Good Kisser VS. A Bad Kisser

Good Kissers

Bad Kissers

- Are compassionate

- May get too intense too quickly

- Make sure that their lips and breath are fresh

- May get too aggressive

- Pay attention to their partner's cues and comfort

- May lack attention to their partner's comfort level

- Take time to explore the kiss

- May lack responsiveness to their partner's cues and movements

- Know the right time and rhythm

- May not understand technique and timing

- Are passionate and romantic

- May not be passionate
