

Selecting Toys As Per THE DEVELOPMENTAL NEEDS Of A 12-Year-Old

Choose toys that encourage new hobbies and boost confidence.

Consider toys that promote group play, such as walkie-talkies and exploration sets.

Select entertaining toys that aid in relieving stress related to school work.

Choose creative toys to keep them occupied during occasional moments of sadness.

Consider toys that promote independent play and constructive use of their "me-time."

Pick toys that require parental supervision to facilitate bonding time with your child.
