

When Should You Worry About Your Boyfriend Not Complimenting You?

He has never expressed his love for your looks or appearance.

He only compliments your specific physical attributes but never your personality or talent.

He gives backhanded compliments such as "I'm surprised you look this good" or "I didn't think you could pull it off."

He never compliments you around others, such as on social media or in front of his or your friends.

He always stares at his phone and never looks at you while complimenting.

He has never specified what he likes but instead gives an insincere compliment. This could mean he is just saying it for the sake of it.
