

How To Cheer Up Your Boyfriend When Apart From Each Other?

Become his gaming partner. Buy gaming consoles, share your user ID, and play a co-op/multiplayer game.

Host a Netflix watch party to have a movie date. Let him pick the movie and enjoy it while on a video call with each other.

Do you both like working out? Take up a challenge of who can do the most bench press or deadlifts. Even if you're winning, act like you are getting the hots for him when he flexes his biceps.

Role-play and pretend to be a random stranger hitting on him. Shower him with compliments and flirty comments.

If you have been together for ages and trust him 100%, you may send an ASMR video of you narrating a sensual story, possibly leading to a passionate virtual session.
