

Gifting Tips For Pre-Teens

Introduce them to advanced books to encourage understanding of complex thoughts and ideas

Give art kits that encourage self-expression in a constructive way

Consider games they can play with friends since they give importance to peers

Pick innovative science project kits that can further their independent thinking skills

Ensure to choose games and projects that boost their self-confidence

Consider basic-level smart gadgets to help them cope with the pressure of schoolwork

Reference:

1. Young Teens (12-14 years of age); CDC
2. Growth & Development: 6 to 12 years (School Age); Children's Health of Orange County