

Tips To Follow When Using

Contour Sticks

Avoid using a bronzer as a contour to ensure a natural look.

Use a contour stick formulation that suits your skin type.

Use a matte contour to avoid a shiny, greasy look.

Use a contour color that is two shades darker than your skin tone.

Use a light hand when applying the contour so you don't overdo it.

Blend your contour well to avoid harsh lines and an unnatural look.

Use a small brush when applying contour to ensure precision and accuracy.

Use a setting spray or powder for the contour to last all day long.
