

Reach beyond the stars, moon, and sky. Happy birthday, rockstar!

Happy birthday to the bravest girl I know. You are an absolute superhero.

Not all superheros wear capes. Some are gentle and kind like you. This year, I hope you spread your kindness wherever you go. Happy birthday!

A superstar deserves a grand birthday celebration. May all your wishes and desires come true. Many many happy returns of the day!

He-Man, Batman, Superman were all little children like you one day. Happy birthday to the most courageous boy I know.

Be the change you want to see in the world. Happy birthday, hero!
