

Activities To Promote Coordination And Social Skills In Children

Putting the pieces of a picture puzzle together

Getting to know each other with the classification game

Coordinating in juggling balls activity

Listening to the other child speaking

Creating a story with allocated pictures

Recalling, discussing, and reviewing life's highlights

Forming into human letters to create a word

