

WHAT TO INCLUDE IN A 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY TOAST?

Include the cute little stories about how the couple met, who proposed to who, when, and how.

Add some family incidents and their life history to give your guests a ride through the couple's journey.

Talk about significant life events such as children's birth, grandchildren, and jobs.

Talk about times of trials and how the couple overcame them together.

Include a few lines about the values that kept them glued to each other through 50 years of marriage.

Thank them for all their contributions to family and society, how you admire them and their virtues, and remember the sacrifices they made.

