

How To Prevent Adverse Effects Of Media On Your Teen

Be informed about what your teen is watching

Interact with them to know their media activities and opinions

Spend time with them and pay attention to your teen's behaviors

Limit your screen time to be a good role model

Encourage your teen to involve in social and familial interactions

Guide them on being safe online and explain the pros and cons of social media

