

SIGNS

Your Toddler Is Developing Right At 27 Months

They may start walking faster and climbing the stairs.

They may refuse to eat new foods.

They may speak a few words independently and repeat the words you say.

They may develop favorites and temper tantrums when they don't get the things they want.

They may sleep for longer durations (about 12 hours a day).

They may show readiness for potty training.

