

Perks Of Being A Stay-At-Home Mother

More focus on children

No work-related stress

Don't have to leave the children with someone else

Get to de-stress while playing with children

A mostly predictable routine

Get to see your children grow and cherish every moment