

Sincere Ways Of Apologizing To Your Girlfriend

Don't make it a small apology. Talk to her about how sorry you are, hear her out, and tell her how you wish to rectify.

Accept your mistake without giving any excuses for your actions.

Don't shy away from apologizing in front of her friends. This will show her that your ego is secondary to her love for you.

Maintain eye contact, and don't keep looking elsewhere. This will show you genuinely want her to accept your apology.

Ask her how she wants you to improve and what you can do about it.

If she remains mad and unconvinced, keep up the effort by making her favorite breakfast, showering her with kisses, and giving her all your time and attention.
