

Texts To Make Him Jealous

"Can I take a rain check on hanging out together on the weekend? I have other plans."

"Got to go now. I will catch up later."

"I had an amazing time at the party last night. How was your night?"

"I have been getting so many compliments today. Must be this new dress."

"I am at lunch with a few friends. I will text you later."

"I feel so lucky to have a friend like Mike. He always knows the right things to say at the right time."

You won't believe it. I saw my crush in my dreams last night."
