

Importance Of Teaching Magic Words To Your Child

Words of gratitude, politeness, and kindness spread positivity and make children more likable.

When your child uses these words, it conveys to people that your child is well-behaved and polite.

Using golden words helps build friendships. Your child would come across as friendly and approachable to people, which would help them make more friends.

It teaches them to be grateful for every kind deed of others and reciprocate the same deeds.

It teaches them to be respectful of their peers and elders and helps them mingle with people.
